Sorry, read the messages in the wrong order.

Unfortunately, and I know this could add fuel to the fire, I think we need to convey back to Deane the state's discomfort and perception that Zach's participation would alter the dynamic and differ from what they agreed to be part of. You may want to let Deane know that we were in a somewhat similar situation with HQ, but made a point of eliminating any confusion/uncertainty by requiring a different participant.

See email exchange between Deane and me below. Dan, let me know how you would like me to proceed.

Zach has served as the Kalsipel's attorney on this TMDL and told Kim that he was being hired by the Kalispel as in-house counsel. While not wanting to escalate emotions leading up to the meeting, I think that Zach's inclusion will stifle a free exchange of opinions and Kim is of the firm opinion that if Zach is at the meeting, EPA should have counsel there.

Dave,

Sorry to not have gotten back to you sooner but have been out of internet availability for a couple of day. Zach is employed by the Kalispel Tribe as a Senior Policy Analyst.

Are the details/logistics for the meeting still the same as earlier? Please let me know if they have.

We look forward to finally meeting on this issue.

Regards,

Deane Osterman, Executive Director

Hi Deane, I left you a voicemail regarding participant decisions for our meeting on Wednesday. With Zach's anticipated participation we are planning to have legal representation at Wednesday's meeting, but we prefer to not have attorneys included if possible. Let me know your perspective so we can plan appropriately. Thanks

Dave
